Celebration

Induction ārambh 2017

To welcome the new laurels and make them familiar with the academic procedure of Engineering Education MIT has organized its induction program Arambh 2017. Where institute head Dr. Kranti Pandey showered her blessings and motivated the students for their future endeavors. Dr. Ranu Shabadra first year HOD, acquainted the students to the syllabus and discipline policy of the organization. Students enjoyed the whole program with fun frolic activities and games.

Independence Day Celebration

“Nationalism is a religion that has come from God”. To pay tribute and remember freedom fighter of India, MIT celebrated the Independence Day with great gusto and fervor. Chairman Shree H.S Bhatia and Vice Principal Dr. Kranti Pandey hoisted the flag and graced the occasion. The Vice Principal in her address reiterated that such celebrations could imbibe in our students the feeling of patriotism, valour and instil the qualities of togetherness and oneness. Students, faculty and staff gathered on the occasion and celebrated the day with great enthusiasm to take MIT to the newer heights. The event was followed by patriotic songs and National Anthem.

Teacher's Day Celebration

“Teachers are the most responsible and important members of the society because their professional efforts affect the fate of the earth”. The students of MIT have organized Teachers Day Celebration on 05 Sept 2017. The Vice-Principal madam with the Head of Departments and all the members of faculty enjoyed the function. The Program began with a tribute to Sir Dr Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan.

Vice - Principal Dr Kranti Pandey in her address advised the students to benefit from the service of teachers and imbibe the noble qualities envisioned by them. Many fun-games and events were organized for teachers followed by cake cutting ceremony and snacks. All students thanked their teachers on the day for making institution a special place for them.

Garba Celebration

Navratri is a nine day festival of worshipping Goddess Durga (Shakti). MIT organized “Aradhana” and Garba celebration for the staff and students that was filled with fun, faith and dance. MIT staff in their traditional attire looked at their very best. The students also had indulged themselves in the traditional look. Every group was allotted some rounds to play Garba. Special prizes were awarded to the Best Group and the Best Dressed student as well as staff. Students and the faculty members participated in the programme very enthusiastically. The program ended with final offerings (aarti) to Goddess Durga followed by Prasad Vitran.

Diwali Celebration

Festivals are an essential part of our life. They offer us a valuable opportunity to cast a glance into the various aspects of our cultural heritage. Diwali, the festival of lights, was celebrated with great joy, fun and endeavor at MIT. A get-together and special dinner was arranged for the members and staff of Malwa Group of Institutions. On the occasion, faculty members along with their families intermingled with each-other and wished health, wealth and success to all.

Engineer's Day

Engineer's day was celebrated at MIT on 15th September 2017. Vice-Principal Dr. Kranti Pandey inaugurated the programme and advised students to get inspiration from the life and works of Shri Moksha Gundam Vishveshwarya. Students of MIT, by participating in many activities threw light on the life and achievements of Shree M G Vishveshwariya.

Engineer's Day - INDIA

Sir Vishveshwarya is among the foremost engineers that the country has ever seen. He was awarded the Bharat Ratna. His Birthday is an occasion to honour all engineers. This day is observed as Engineer's Day.

Sir Mokshagundam Vishveshwarya, KCIE (1860-1962)

Warm Good Bye to 2017

Welcome 2018

At the turn of the New Year it is obvious to look back at the year just passed and to pay gratitude for achievements and amendments. Malwa Institute of Technology celebrated a grand Good Bye to Year 2017 in its green and tranquil campus. All staff members and students greeted each-other for the past year and openheartedly welcomed the New Year by participating in many fun activities.
